New Castle Man Killed In Crash Near State Line

Edward J. Besner, 28, Dies In Accident On Route 224 Monday Afternoon

CAR COLLIDES WITH BIG TRUCK

Edward J. Besner, aged 28 years, of 908 Dewey avenue, this city, was killed instantly Monday afternoon about 4:15 o'clock, a quarter of a mile east of the Ohio State line on Route 224, when his auto collided with a two-ton truck, loaded with sandstone.

He was pronounced dead at the Southside hospital, Youngstown, O., by the Mahoning county coroner, Dr. Nathan Belinky.

Chief of Police Edward J. Maloney, of Lowellville, O., stated that the victim, an employee of the Republic Steel company, at Youngstown, O., attempted to pass a vehicle in front of his car, at a slight hill. He was unable to completely pass the car, when the west-bound truck driven by Russell E. Penn, 39, of R. D. 2, Hubbard, O., loomed in front and the collision occurred.

Skull Crushed
Besner suffered a crushed skull, the roof of the car being leveled with the hood of the car from the terrific impact. The truck was slightly damaged. Identification of the body was hampered at first, for apparently Besner was not driving his own car, the police stated.

The young man ironically enough escaped injury during his 55 months of service in World War II in Germany. He met death while returning home from work at the Republic Steel company, Youngstown, O., where he had been employed for the past three years.

Born In Massachusetts
Born on July 7, 1919, in Huntington, Mass., he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Besner. For two years he had been (Continued on Page Two)

Says Russia In No Position To Fight

Rev. Bernard J. Hubbard, 'Famed Glacier Priest', Makes Statement In Boston

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—(INS)—Rev. Bernard J. Hubbard, S. J., famed "glacier priest," believes Russia lacks the industrial power to wage war successfully against the United States.

He also expressed belief that Premier Stalin, already the victim of two slight heart attacks, probably will die this year.

Speaking at the Archdiocese hall in behalf of the Archbishop Richard J. Cushing charity fund he said: "I don't believe we are going to have to fight Russia. I know that Stalin's health is bad and that he probably will not last out the year. The Russians do not have the industrial capacity to wage war. We hear a lot of propaganda emanating from the Soviet but we have heard all that before."

Nancy De Marigny Seeking Annulment

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(INS)—Nancy Oakes de Marigny, 23, had filed in New York today a suit for annulment of her marriage to Alfred de Marigny, 41, who was acquitted in 1943 of the slaying of her father, Sir Harry Oakes, in Nassau, Bahamas.

The action disclosed that they were married in July, 1944, almost a year after she stood by De Marigny and testified they were man and wife.

At that time it was believed they had married in May, 1942. De Marigny was charged in failing to obtain a valid divorce from the annulment action with Lucy Alice Cahoon, whom he married in Paris March 22, 1937.

Proposal For Meat Rationing Opposed

By CHARLES E. SEIB (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A bill proposed by Sen. Flanders (R) Vt., to set up meat rationing machinery faced strong opposition in committee today, with the prospect of an even tougher battle if and when the measure reaches the senate floor.

The bill would permit Secretary of Agriculture Anderson to spend one million dollars preparing for meat rationing. Actual rationing could be ordered by the president after he gives congress 30 days to say "no".

Flanders presented the measure to the senate with the claim that a rationing program would hold prices down without curtailing the meat supply.

Will Oppose Measure

But Sen. A. Willis Robertson (D) Va., a member of the banking and currency committee which will consider the bill, later told reporters that he will oppose it on the grounds that it would neither increase supply nor cut prices.

Robertson declared that "rationing could result in black market operations comparable to the fall of 1946, when people had ration coupons, but legitimate distributors had no meat for sale."

Soviet Policy Pronouncement May Be Issued

Allied Control Council Session May Bring New Policy Statement

GERMAN POLICY IS UNDER FIRE

By OMER ANDERSON (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Jan. 20.—An important new pronouncement on future Soviet policy in Germany is expected today from Russian Marshal Vasily Sokolovsky at a crucial session of the Allied Control Council.

Marshal Sokolovsky, chief of the Soviet occupation zone, has just returned from an extended stay in Moscow where he apparently received detailed instructions from Soviet officials on policy to be followed.

A possible heated clash between Russia and the United States was forecast over Soviet objections to unification of the American and British zones in western Germany.

American military government circles fully expect a strong attack by Marshal Sokolovsky against Anglo-American policy which may also include a criticism (Continued on Page Two)

Pauley Denies Using Inside Information

By FRANK B. ALLEN (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Edwin W. Pauley told Congress in a letter made public today that he never used any government position or "inside information" for personal gain.

Pauley's letter to the Senate Appropriations Committee was closed by Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich., chairman of a subcommittee investigating commodity speculation by purported "insiders."

Ferguson gave no immediate explanation as to why the communication, dated Jan. 3, was withheld until this time.

The Senate investigation was touched off by GOP presidential aspirant Harold E. Stassen, who testified that Pauley made "a million dollars" in postwar commodity trading.

Pauley, who pointed out that he had previously furnished the Ferguson subcommittee with copies of his records, showing a profit of more than $800,000, has accused Stassen of obtaining "inside information" from the investigating group.

Auto Driver's Reaction Being Tested

Miss Mary Jones tests her driving ability on the Aetna Driverometer, which is located in the lobby of the Pennsylvania Power company, as Mr. Vincent G. Burkhardt, of the Pennsylvania State police, checks her reaction time.

News Reporter Takes Driverometer Test

Have you been tested on the Driverometer located in the Penn Power display rooms through the cooperation of the power company, McBride & Shannon, and The New Castle News?

If you haven't, you're missing a worthwhile, and one may add, a beneficial test.

The police reporter of The News today took the test and he came through "average"; that is, reaction to danger.

The average is 5-8 of a second at a speed of 20 miles an hour.

The tests are given by State Highway Patrolmen Vince Burkhardt and Eugene Cahalan.

The Driverometer is equipped with steering wheel, accelerator and brake pedals.

Inside the machine itself, is a motion picture projector and screen, upon which "dangerous situations arise."

The Driverometer is designed and taken around the nation to help minimize accidents and prevent fatalities.

For instance, you're driving along and see on the screen, a red light flashes.

You step upon the brake as fast as you can—and the machine times you.

Greek Guerrilla Weapons Being Closely Watched

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(INS)—United States officials watched closely today the appearance of weapons with Greek civil war rebels which may have been supplied by outside forces, including possible lend-lease materials supplied Russia and Yugoslavia.

The latest implement of war to appear—the bazooka—has been reported by the clandestine "Free Greek" radio which originally proclaimed the Communist-controlled Rump Greek government.

The appearance of this weapon, it is actually occurred, was taken to indicate that some outside power is supplying the implements of war to the rebel government.

As far as is known in Washington, none of the Balkan satellites were equipped with these weapons unless some were dropped into the hands of Marshall Tito's Yugoslav government. The Russians are known to have them but it is uncertain whether they were supplied by Soviet factories or were supplied by the Western Allies.

Dulles Offers Suggestions On Aid To Europe

Believes Full Appropriation Should Be Made For Marshall Plan First Phase

DECLARES PROGRAM CAN BE IMPROVED (BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(INS)—John Foster Dulles, GOP foreign affairs expert, urged Congress today to provide the full $5 billion dollars for the first phase of the Marshall plan but severely criticized divided American authority in western Germany.

He accused the American army administration in Germany of acting "as if it never heard of the European recovery plan." He declared: "It's time the two things got together."

By WILLIAM THIES (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Republican Foreign Affairs expert John Foster Dulles urged today that Congress appropriate the full six billion, 800 million dollars recommended by the administration to carry out the first phase of the Marshall plan.

Dulles told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that he is not qualified to say what sum is needed for the period up until June 30, 1949, to implement the European recovery program but suggested "it is wiser to appropriate the full amount which qualified experts think prudent."

Dulles declared: "I am confident that if in the name of economy the European recovery program is abandoned, or made inadequate, that will involve our nation in future costs far greater than any present savings."

The international lawyer, who was an adviser at recent foreign ministers conferences, stated that the plan as formulated by Secretary of State Marshall probably will succeed if it is adequately financed and well administered.

Step Toward Peace
Dulles explained that the plan is not just a "humanitarian enterprise."

Pointing out that it is a step toward peace, he warned that "if we do not take that step, we shall not get peace."

He said emphatically that Soviet (Continued on Page Two)

Arab Attack Brings Battle

JERUSALEM, Jan. 20.—(INS)—A large force of Arabs attacked the Jewish village of Yechiam in northern Palestine today and started a fierce battle which reportedly resulted in many dead and wounded on both sides.

The attack was launched by Arabs who deployed along the Acre-Tarshiha road.

A Jewish settlement police armored car which sped to Yechiam to take out some wounded failed to return to its station. Later it was found burned out along the roadway. Its occupants were unaccounted for.

Although details on the battle were meager, British army sources said that at last report the fighting which started at 7 a. m. still is continuing.

Holy land authorities meanwhile searched for vital maps and surveys seized during the night in a raid by members of the Jewish Ir-gun Zvai Leumi underground group.

Pravda Lashes At Forrestal

By NATALIA RENE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Jan. 20.—The Communist newspaper Pravda lashed out today against American Secretary of Defense James Forrestal's statement that more appropriations for the military will be necessary if the Marshall plan is not put into effect.

The Communist organ declared that since Forrestal spoke not "at a secret meeting of war-mongers" but at an open hearing of a congressional foreign affairs committee everything he said got into the European press.

Pravda asserted that this caused considerable alarm among "millions of people of western Europe who learned what an ignoble fate is prepared for them by their American benefactors who are constantly handing out promises of 'help'."

The newspaper said that the reports from Washington have made them particularly alert, "the more so since American candidates for European vice-regents who have swarmed over Europe already had time to demonstrate what they are worth."

Q. Why does it cost so much to build a hospital?

A. New methods of diagnosing disease and restoring health are constantly being developed and all of them must be instantly available in a hospital. Many require costly equipment and specially designed building space—which means that every cubic foot of hospital space is far more expensive than the same amount of space in almost any other building.

Exporting Makes It Short

Another Democratic member of the committee—Sen. Maybank of South Carolina—declined comment specifically on the Flanders bill, but said:

Both Robertson and Maybank asserted that prices already are on the way down on many agricultural items.

Should Flanders' bill be reported out of committee, it will be faced by the violent opposition of Sen. Wherry (R) Ind., majority whip and acting floor leader.

Wherry stated flatly that the measure would "stifle meat production." He declared that it already has done so because "feeders are scared to put cattle in the feed lots."

Wherry predicted a huge black market operations under meat rationing with "low prices tags in the markets, but empty cartons on the shelves."

Strike Threatened

The engineers, firemen and switchmen have threatened a strike by their 175,000 members in February as result of a breakdown in efforts to sign a new wage agreement with the railroads.

There was some confusion about the date for the walkout. Original announcements scheduled it for Feb. 6, but later it was set for Feb. 1.

Union chiefs were unanimous, however, in the statement that 97 per cent of their membership authorized the strike in a ballot taken several weeks ago.

Appointment of the emergency board under the Railway Labor Act will defer a strike for 60 days and end the threat entirely if both parties accept the board's recommendations.

DULLES OFFERS SUGGESTION ON AID TO EUROPE

leaders and the Communist party are striving to make sure that the war wounds suffered by European nations "will prove fatal."

Dulles declared that the countries of western Europe will fail and become subjugated to Communist rule "unless the United States does something to help these convalescent countries regain their health."

The committee was told that in certain respects Dulles felt the State Department proposal for European recovery can be improved. He made seven "concrete suggestions" toward this end, outlining them as follows:

To Improve Recovery Plan

1. The basic purpose of the program ought to be set forth more clearly.

2. Continuing aid should be contingent upon continuing cooperation by the peoples and governments of participating countries.

3. The full appropriation recommended by qualified experts should be voted for the plan.

4. The plan should indicate some of the targets which, on the basis of the 16 nation report, the participating countries themselves believe to be attainable by progressive steps.

5. As regards Germany, the administration should supply similar production targets and assurances that, in so far as lies within our governmental power, we shall seek to integrate its economy into that of western Europe.

6. The administrator of the program should be under duty to follow the results of aid given and to measure them in terms of target goals, and he should report periodically to the President and Congress with respect to these matters.

7. The administrator should be under the direction of the President and the Secretary of State in so far as regards decisions which primarily involve foreign policy.

Dulles told the committee that the United States today as a paradise compared to most of the world, adding:

"But it will be a fool's paradise if we do not make honest, substantial efforts to help others to lift themselves out of the morass into which they have fallen."

Plan Squelched

Earlier reported plans by Sokolovsky to demand evacuation of Berlin by the western powers were understood, however, to have been squelched by the Kremlin.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. commander in Europe who has taken a firm stand against Soviet propaganda suggesting withdrawal from Berlin by the western allies, said of the Russians:

"They will probably accuse us of failure in the denazification and demilitarization program and everything under the sun."

Expectations now are that the Russians will avoid any outright demand for removal of American, British and French authorities from the German capital.

Neither are the Russians expected to take such a drastic step as withdrawing from the allied council.

Any indication of Soviet toughness undoubtedly will bring a showdown by Gen. Clay who stated his position emphatically in an exclusive interview with International News Service when he said: "Americans are not in the habit of yielding on any point under pressure."

FAITH THOSE WHO HELP US

This great country of ours has an army of mechanics, professional and business men and women, whose duty it is to keep the rest of us and our machinery in good condition, to do the work that we have to do. There are all kinds of mechanics, carpenters, plumbers, professional men, and a great number of others, who not only keep the rest of us going, but also make a living that way. When we need a plumber, we call a plumber; when we need a carpenter, electric work done, we call an electrician, and so forth on down the line. Each one of these carries a grip full of tools to either be used, or make them look like mechanics or business men.

This time, it was the head machine who wakened up in the middle of the night, with joints all squeaking, the doors rattling and the engine missing. When the garage man, or in this case, garage woman, found this out, she immediately decided to call a mechanic, and of course this mechanic happened to be the Doctor. But, being a mechanic myself, I insisted on putting that off until morning, as I knew how many times they were called out of their slumber, when it could have been done later.

Finally, the right mechanic, and a good friend of mine, came in looking wise, and like most other mechanics, wanted to know what was the matter. After a little explanation, he looked at me and immediately felt the fluid line, to see if there was plenty of fluid there, or not too much, which in either case is bad for the machine. He then pressed a round instrument with a long hose, (which I know very well had been out in the cold), against my chest, to find out if the pump was working alright. He then examined the carburetor, to find out if the mixture was right, and after some sober thinking decided, with a little cleaning up and new gas in the tank, and a few other things, the old machine might run a day or two.

He gave the garage keeper a little instructions as to what I should do and shouldn't do, and also wrote on a paper and left with her, what kind of gas and oil I would have to have for awhile, in order to keep things right. Then, to finish up, he stuck some kind of an instrument in my arm, which I guess was for the purpose of putting a little pep in the old gasoline, smiled pleasantly and left.

After he was gone, I got to thinking I didn't ask him how much he charged an hour, or how long he stayed, but whatever it would be, I decided it was much better than putting the old machine in the garage to be used no more, and even though his bill for parts will be a great deal more than the work done, I know it will be paid with a smile. The old bus is out going again.

White House Gets 'Voice Of America' Bill On Monday

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(INS)—The house Monday sent the "Voice Of America" bill to the White House after accepting senate changes in the measure sponsored by Rep. Mundt (R) S. D.

The bill gives legislative sanction to the efforts the state department already has been making to combat Russian propaganda with an information program setting forth the American viewpoint. The legislation, as revised by the senate, requires that private enterprise radio, publications and motion pictures, be utilized as much as possible in the program.

W. S. C. S. MEETING
The W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Roy Unangst on Friday evening with the president, Mrs. Ferd Book, presiding. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Jack Sedgwick with reports of the secretary, Mrs. Sam Book, and treasurer, Mrs. Roy Raub, given to date.

An inspiring program was presented by Mrs. Ferd Book, assisted by several ladies, the topic "Thy Way Upon Earth". Mrs. Charles McCullough ably and very interestingly presented the first chapter of the study book, "Prayers of the Patriarchs".

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ferd Book.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
Mrs. Edgar Leeper entertained 24 young folks in her home Saturday in honor of the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter Linda. Games of various kinds were enjoyed by the group and later in the afternoon Mrs. Leeper, assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ferd Book, served refreshments. The honor guest received a collection of lovely and useful gifts.

EDENBURG NOTES

The Congo or Kongo river, in Africa, is the largest, and excepting the Nile, the longest river in Africa and one of the great rivers of the earth.

John S. Copley, American artist, went to London in 1774, made a number of portraits, including those of the king and queen, and was elected a member of the Royal Academy in 1779. He sympathized with the American Revolution but remained in England and became one of the most popular of English artists. His son, Lord Lyndhurst, later became Lord Chancellor of England.

As a crocodile lives chiefly on rivers, the inside of its mouth constantly is covered with leeches. When the crocodile leaves the water and comes upon land, it lies with its mouth wide open and the "crocodile bird" goes into its mouth and devours the leeches.

The white-tailed or prairie hare or rabbit is found all over the plains north of Kansas and throughout the Utah Basin. It is the only jack rabbit whose coat turns white in winter, and it may be recognized in summer by the fact that its tail is entirely white.

Truckers Pledge $600 To Hospital

PMTA Chapter Makes Pledge At Monthly Dinner Meeting Monday Night

At the dinner meeting of the Lawrence County chapter, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, Monday, $600 was pledged to the Jameson Memorial Hospital expansion campaign. The dinner meeting was held in the Castleton Hotel.

The $600 pledge merely represents the pledge of the chapter as such. It has nothing to do with the personal pledges made by members. Speaking in favor of the motion to pledge the money one of the past officers of the chapter said, "In this industry we never know when we will need a hospital either for ourselves or our employees. When we do need a hospital we want to know that it is equipped and staffed to give us the best service possible."

Safety Stressed

Past State President Paul W. Keely talked at some length upon the necessity of the industry strengthening its safety program. "Safety has always been uppermost in the minds of men in the trucking industry, but it is becoming increasingly apparent that there is a need for an even stronger program." The chapter president J. Fred Clarke was authorized to appoint a safety committee with authority to draw up even more stringent safety regulations than are now in effect.

Plans for the regional meeting hereon February 7 were discussed. At this meeting there will be representatives from ten western Pennsylvania counties. The annual Ladies' Night Dinner on March 27 also was discussed.

Injunction Case Again Delayed

No action was taken Monday in the injunction case against the county commissioners, treasurer and controller other than the filing of an answer concerning jurisdiction. Commissioners Earl R. Wimer and Joseph F. Travers had filed an answer to the original proceedings by County Commissioner Karl T. Rohrer in which they charged lack of jurisdiction. The answer insists the Lawrence county court has jurisdiction in the matter and the case now goes over to the first Monday of February. At that time the two new commissioners, Harvey B. Bush and Joseph R. Gilmore, along with the new county treasurer, Don I. Neal, will be substituted as defendants to replace Commissioner Earl R. Wimer and County Treasurer Frank W. Hill.

The injunction suit is one in which former County Commissioner Karl T. Rohrer seeks to restrain the county from paying $5000 to Matthew Leivo Sons company for extras on the repair of the West Washington street bridge.

Trade Expert Is Heard By Rotary

W. O. Haddon Tells Local Club That Gap Between Exports And Imports
Must Narrow

CITES DANGER OF ECONOMIC COLLAPSE

Unless it is made apparent to everyone in this country, that the prosperity of one country is nothing without the prosperity of all countries, enabling them to purchase goods from one another with trade dollars, there is danger of another great economic collapse and resultant war, W. O. Haddon, representative of the Westinghouse Electric International Company, and chairman of the World Trade Council of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce told members of the New Castle Rotary club at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Monday.

In a sense, the speaker stated, all Americans have a tacit realization of such economic truths. They agree, in principle, that no person shall lack food, clothing, or shelter, or the chance to help himself.
But unfortunately, their pledges are silent, their hopes lack direction. Before the depression years of the '30's, the world had a chance to create some sort of international machinery, by which it might have stimulated financial and economic cooperation, but it failed to do anything. Today, it has the same chance—in the avowed intention of the U. S. Government to break down the barriers to imports and in the efforts to create an International Trade Organization.

People Must Be Enlightened

But before such an idea has even the remotest chance of maturing, people must be enlightened to the causes of our economic illness in the past, and the common association this shares with tensions taking place today in this era of the strange peace. People must realize that all the commotion is being caused by man, who is eternally seeking the basic essentials of life, and who will get them one way or another. It is our job to see that he gets them peacefully. And we can do this job best by closing the gap between our exports and imports.

Mr. Haddon pointed out that foreign countries need dollars to purchase our goods. Unless they can increase their exports to us, thereby creating an income, they will have no money with which to make these purchases, our production will have to be curtailed, and we will be in the throes of another depression.

Our worst enemies, he stated, are our blessings—our wealth, our success, our way of life, and our production facilities, which today account for 50 per cent of the world's total. They have succeeded in blinding us to the political and strategic threats arising around us as a result of a general economic crisis throughout the world. Four-fifths of the world has either been destroyed by war, or subjected to grave economic dislocations. Experts have been telling us that the way we handle this emergency will determine the future of the world.
People must be made to realize that our exports mean nothing unless they are balanced by imports.
Last year we exported fourteen billion dollars worth of goods, which was all out of proportion with our imports. He pointed out several countries which are cutting U. S. imports, because they cannot export to us.

avenue, was elected by Council, meeting in City Hall, to serve as assistant to the city assessor, George Patterson, at the meeting on Monday. His salary was designed at $200 monthly. He was recommended by Finance Director Albert A. Hoyland. Property Director Joseph D. Alexander gave a second to the recommendation, and Beadel was elected unanimously.

Safety Director Richard I. Davis offered a recommendation that George Harper, former assistant to the fire chief, who was succeeded by Herman Steinbrink, World War II veteran, be a captain at No. 2 fire station, and Wilmer Hawk, who was succeeded also as an assistant fire chief, by Norman McFarland, be a captain at the central department. Joseph Zeigler, a captain, was transferred from central to No. 4 station-house.
The recommendations were accepted unanimously.

Upon motion of Property Director Joseph D. Alexander, Council adopted a resolution requesting the commissioners of Lawrence county to set up a property delinquent tax board. This was done after Mayor John F. Haven explained its advantages. Should the county do so, it will make things easier for persons who pay delinquent taxes. They will be able to get all of their delinquent taxes at one place instead of visiting both City Hall and the courthouse.

Council was unanimous today in believing that something drastic was necessary to have some people pay their delinquent personal property taxes. Mayor John F.
Haven developed the subject and it was estimated that there remains uncollected in the personal property taxes for 1947 about $30,- 000.

Solicitor Robert M. White, who has charge of the delinquent tax, reported that people who owe the tax pay little or no attention to letters asking them to pay. He said a levy on household goods can be made, or they may be arrested and forced to pay their taxes.

All members of Council stated that in their opinions, it was unfair for some to pay and others to escape payment. The matter was left to Solicitor White. He was voted authority to employ a tax collector and if necessary cause arrests upon failure to pay.

It was indicated at Thursday's meeting that Council would adopt legislation putting the present City building on sale and asking bid for the superstructure of the new City building which is to be erected at North Jefferson and Grant streets.

Council referred to Solicitor R.
M. White for checking and recommendation a bill from the P.
R. which installed a crossing in Neal street. The bill amounts to $1,162.41 and was approved by the Public Utilities Commission.

FIREMEN COMMENDED

Public Safety Director Richard I.
Davis received from W. A. Francis of the Francis Motor Company, a letter of commendation for the prompt and efficient work of the local fire department which was summoned to his business place
Friday afternoon.

It appears smoke belched from a furnace and an alarm was turned in. The fire department was on the job quickly, the building surveyed and entrance made without damage to it and the trouble erdicted.

It's a-MAZE-ing!

Husbands, please note! The average housewife performs 70 different tasks in her normal day's work! (Frankly, women will think this figure far too low, but it comes from the U. S. Government's Office of Education!)

Yes, home-making is a big job—but dependable, time-and-labor-saving electricity helps a housewife skip through her maze of tasks. Electric service saves her steps, lightens her work, gives her more leisure, makes life healthier and happier for her and all her family!

And it costs so little! In an era of sky-high prices, that same average housewife still gets twice as much electricity for her budget dollar as she got 20 years ago!

Yes, it is a-maze-ing!

G.O.P. Leaders Meeting Today

To Issue Routine Call For Convention In June—Discuss Candidates

By WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Republican Chairman Carroll Reece coupled a "hands off" promise on GOP policies and candidates today with a charge that President Truman has conducted an "infamous alliance" with communism.

Reece told members of the Republican national committee that it is only through their party that the people will "have an opportunity to put an end to 16 years of crisis government."

Reece said that any of those "prominently mentioned" candidates who give the nation an administration of which "the Republicans could be proud."

The chairman rapped President Truman's state of the union message as a "public confession of administration desperation" and a "brazen appeal for votes."

SWEET OR IRISH

Some people like Irish potatoes and some people like sweet potatoes. Some people like both kinds. Pounds for pounds, sweets have more nourishment than spuds. Dollar for dollar they are usually about the same.

In a free and open market, values usually adjust themselves. An adjusted market is something else again.

Potatoes provide carbohydrate. The common names for that big word are starch or sugar.

Gas is burned in an auto to make power.

Sugar is burned in the body to make energy.

If the body works hard it needs more starch than it is idle.

REMAINING POPULAR THOUGHTFUL OLD AGE

"Have you any recipe for remaining popular and charming throughout old age?" I notice so many old people lose their old friends and make few new ones and go into a lonely old age.

Answer: Yes. First of all, keep up a good appearance. Don't let yourself sag physically or mentally. Be as meticulous in your choice of attractive clothes and becoming hair-dos as you were at forty.

Nevertheless dress your age and with dignity . . . not in too youthful models. Don't use age as an excuse for frowiness or carelessness in dress or bad manners, dictatorship, peevishness or selfishness.

A sweet old lady or charming old man is welcome anywhere among normal, young people. There is no reason why age alone should be a barrier; but the carelessness, indifference, lack of sympathy and tyranny that too often accompany its decidedly are barriers to friendship.

To be popular, old people must be cognizant of the changes in the world and forget that hackneyed phrase: "When I was young, etc., etc." Things are not necessarily wrong because they had not been thought of 50 or 60 years ago.

Aging people should belong to clubs and keep up their old friendships that they may lead independent and individual lives — apart from the younger members of the family. Above all, if they would be popular with their children and grandchildren, they should cease criticizing them . . . develop a reputation as a "good sport" who is easy to get along with and safe to confide in.

Question: Must the bridesmaids be single girls?

Answer: No. They may be either married or single.

"I bought this woman for my own . . . and I'll kill the man who touches her!"

Women sold on the auction block . . . reduced by the blood of fearless men . . . braving 1000 dangers as they drew the map of America across the wilderness!

Liquor Investment By Public In 1947 Set At $208,390,183

Report Shows 11 Per Cent Drop In 1947 Over Previous Year, December Sales Lead

HARRISBURG, Jan. 20.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's investment in liquor during 1947 was pegged today at $208,390,183, an 11 per cent drop from the sum spent the previous year.

The state liquor control board reported consumers passed $189,601,812 over the counters of 574 state stores to pay for wine and whiskey products plus a nine dollar a gallon federal tax and additional $18,088,371 to cover the state's 10 per cent levy. The total 1946 expenditure was $234,300,531.

Gross Sales Fall

The 1947 gross sales (excluding the state tax) fell 13 per cent from the $218,306,773 figure in the 1946 ledger, the board said, while tax returns went up 17 per cent from the $15,991,059 intake of 1946, according to the board.

The gain was attributed to the removal of price controls when the board was able to apply markups on the federal levy as well as the wholesale price and tax the entire amount. The existence of price ceilings forced the board to place its markups before applying the federal and state imposts to the price.

Record monthly sales were noted during December of 1947 when $27,044,207 worth of merchandise was sold compared with $26,734,711 during the holiday month of 1946. Tax returns were $2,702,318 in December, 1947, and $1,887,916 in December, 1946.

The name "Bayard" is still used to designate any spirited or fine horse, for Bayard the horse of the four sons of Aymon, famous for his swiftness and for his power of adjusting the length of his body to one or several riders.

County Budgets Near Completion

Estimated Expenditures For Year Given Commissioners By Controller Dodds

OTHER NEWS OF COUNTY AFFAIRS

Within a few days the county's general and institutional budgets will be ready for the required 20 days of public display. County Controller Andrew M. Dodds has given the commissioners the estimated expenditures of the county for the coming year and in a day or two will have the figures on the estimated receipts and a tentative tax levy ready.

In 1947 the estimated receipts were $336,885 exclusive of the balance carried over. The actual receipts were $363,000. The estimated expenditures were $340,705. The actual expenditures were $415,797.67. Because the actual expenditures were under the estimate, the county has a balance of about $197,000 to start the fiscal year. This is not high and with the same average of receipts and expenditures this year the balance to be carried over for 1948 would be much lower.

The realty assessments for 1948 total $63,250,000. The occupational assessments are $7,175,000 and the personal property assessments approximately $12,000,000.

Notices are to be sent to the assessors showing the personal property returns for 1947 and the assessors are expected to return the holdings in their districts for 1948.

Whether or not the tax levy will be increased this year depends upon the estimated receipts and the outlook for a balance at the end of the year. Unless there is a floating balance sufficient to carry the county until the taxes start coming in, in July, a loan is necessary. To carry the county for the six month period it is necessary to have about $200,000 of a loan, to avoid a loan.

EQUITY HEARING

Asking that a receiver be appointed for the Craftmen's Flooring Institute Inc., the equity suit of David E. Germain against the school was heard Monday by Judge W. Walter Graham.

David E. Germain, the petitioner asserts he is a director and the vice president of the company operating at 1209 Moravia street. Students for the most part are G. I. Billers attending under the so-called GI Bill of Rights.

Mr. Germain states the company has assets, office equipment and machinery of about $1500 and the company has a book value of about $4,000. The indebtedness approximates $2,500 in wages, materials and salaries. He claims the affairs of the company have been mismanaged, and that Michael Clavel, the president of the company has made agreements without the consent of the board. He cites one attempt to involve the company in debt with Alfonso Scarzo, without the board's consent. He asks that a receiver be appointed to handle the affairs of the company for the time being.

Suburb Of Paris Votes Communistic

PARIS, Jan. 20.—(INS)—Returns from municipal balloting in the Paris suburb of Malakoff showed Monday that the Communists retained all 13 of their council seats and remain the majority party in the industrial district.

General Charles De Gaulle's anti-Communist "French people's rally" won nine seats, one less than they captured in the October elections. One seat was gained by the "third force" of Socialists and Center parties, who now hold five positions.

The Malakoff balloting was interpreted by political observers as a sign that the Communists have lost no strength in the French capital's industrial areas.

The Communists polled a total of 6,282 votes, an increase of 101 over their October showing. The De Gaullists vote dropped from 4,886 to 4,284, while the "Third Force" received 2,417 votes as compared to 2,284 in October.

Boys' Choir Of George Junior Republic Coming

Will Sing At First Methodist Church On Sunday Night At 7:30 O'Clock

Boys choir from the Pennsylvania George Junior Republic will sing in First Methodist church on Sunday evening, January 25, at 7:30.

George Junior Republic is an idea and ideal that should command the interest of all citizens in this area. What happens when an underprivileged boy falls into social maladjustment? Is there any way in which such boys can learn to be public-spirited citizens and to resume their normal position in the society of men? The George Junior Republic is one answer to such a problem.

Because this school is located at Grove City, Pa., and because it is serving a great need in our section of the country it should be better known by all the citizenry. The director of the school will tell the story of the school and its work and the boys choir will render the Christmas cantata upon which they worked so hard and which deserves to have this larger hearing.

If you are interested in music, if you want to hear a boys chorus, if you are interested in the welfare of young men then you will want to hear this unusual program. Once again First Methodist church serves as a medium for bringing an educational program to the people of New Castle.

Railroads Need 200,000 New Cars

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Construction of 10,000 freight cars a month for at least two years was urged by a Senate Interstate Commerce subcommittee to relieve a national shortage.

Completing a year's study in which it heard 165 witnesses from 20 states and compiled a record of 995 pages, the group said such a program is necessary to increase the nation's supply of boxcars and open top cars by 100,000 units each.

The report said severe shortage conditions resulted at least in part from failure of the War Production Board and Civilian Production Administration to allocate enough steel for freight car builders and failure of the Interstate Commerce Commission to use its "full powers" to distribute the car supply equitably.

There will be a dinner-meeting of the Wolves club Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at The Castle-ton. President Nicholas Casalandra will preside.

Dr. Thomas R. Uber will be the evening speaker.

Ministerial Group Hears Col. Tchou

Regular Session Of Ministerium Held Monday In First Presbyterian Church

Col. M. Thomas Tchou, former secretary to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, was the special speaker Monday at the regular session of the New Castle Ministerial Association, held in First Presbyterian church, North Jefferson at Falls street.

The speaker of the morning was introduced by Rev. James A. Galsner, pastor of First Methodist church. Col Tchou addressed the assemblage of ministers on the present critical situation that exists in the world today and its particular relationship to China. The representative of the World Citizenship Movement spoke glowingly of General George C. Marshall's stay in China in his attempt to unravel the snarled problems of that country.

Col Tchou felt that the only way to end the war raging in China was to not supply either side with arms or money, but to let it fizzle out as he termed it. He spoke of the highly inflated conditions that presently exist in China. In 1937 a meal that could be bought for $1.00 cost $100.00 today in Chinese currency.

Preceding the address of the morning, Rev. James N. Rainey conducted the business session. Devotions were led by Rev. Thomas J. Jones, L. B. Round, of the Pennsylvania Power Company was introduced and spoke briefly of the Men's Christian Fellowship group which has been organized for men over 16 years of age. The group meets the third Sunday of the month with the next meeting at Edworth church.

Rev. J. Calvin Rose told of the work of the chaplaincy committee for the Lawrence County Home and reported that a budget of $300 had been set for use of the chaplain to cover traveling expenses and incidentals.

Rev. George Braun, gave a good report of the city-wide surveying that figures would be announced shortly. A.W.S.C.S. day of prayer was announced for the First Christian church, Friday, February 13. The ministers and wives dinner will be held in First Baptist church, on February 9 at 6:30 p. m.

Dr. Thomas J. Jones will be the speaker at the next meeting of the association on Monday, February 2.

FAIR or FOUL

By LAWTON CARVER (INS Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The Police Gazette announced today that a sports editor had been hired. This is the new, modern Police Gazette—a Police Gazette with that look and not the Police Gazette you used to find on every chair in the country-town barber shop 30 and more years ago. The sports editor is Mickey Walker, prize-fighter, artist, and now suddenly a convert to the ranks of literary grind and groan. There is one thing about the old Toy Bulldog's job that is impressive to the run of the mill sports editors—and you know who I mean: His first assignment is to travel around the country signing up fighters who will work in a stable to be run by the Police Gazette under Walker's direction. What kind of a sports editor is this? No boss of mine ever handed me a wad of folding money and said: "Here, take this and go on off somewhere to gather a stable of prize-fighters, especially a contender for the heavyweight championship. Everybody's going to get a payday." That is Walker's current mission—to get some fighters, but mainly a good, strapping heavyweight who can hit.

The significance of this strange situation can be found in the fact that only a few weeks ago I sat with the Old Toy Bulldog, former middleweight champion and one of the all-time greats, and all he talked about was art. We sat that day in the remains of Lahiff's tavern, the spot where Walker, in his younger days, spent thousands of dollars and kicked his heels so high that the lights overhead rattled. As we sat there that evening talking about his painting, Big Bill Duffy, the current proprietor of the one-time New York landmark, sat over there with Jack Kearns, Walker's manager of the old days, and finally when I left the three of them moved together at a table. Walker had talked to me at length about his painting as the main interest of his life now, and how he hoped to be able to attain the peak of this business of dabbling. He has had several shows and knows many of the answers about this business of putting color on canvas. But his own mob has never really accepted him as the wearer of a smock and beret and maybe goat-whiskers later on in life. Big Bill Duffy, one of our rough fellows of the old days, and Doc Kearns, another of that school, have been hoping secretly all along no doubt that Mickey would give up this nonsense. Then a few days after I had seen Mickey in what was Lahiff's of the old days and more recently Duffy's tavern, the joint was closed up again and Big Bill went one way Doc Kearns another. The latter bounced into Madison Square Garden managing Joe Maxim to a win over Ollie Tandberg. Big Bill Duffy wasn't around and Mickey Walker watched the fight with "Chuck" Jamison at 46, knew for certain in his own heart that he could belt out either of them—may be both of them in the same evening. Then Mickey went back to his painting in Jersey. And today, Nat Perlow, managing editor of the Police Gazette, called up to say Mickey had been engaged as sports editor. Welcome into the fold kiddo—and keep punching.

East Brook Tops Fannins, 54 To 32

East Brook Boosters last night handed the Fannins a neat 54 to 32 shellacking at the East Brook High floor, with "Chuck" Jamison the star of the game with 20 points, followed by Morrow and Nene for East Brook and Scaglione and Newell for the Fannins.

Aliquippa And Farrell In Section III Headliner

Five Teams Battling To Break Away In Class "B" Title Chase; New Castle Ready For Sharon Tigers; Ellwood At Beaver Falls.

With the Section 23 basketball chase tangled tighter than Mrs. Murphy's wet wash, some interesting developments are expected to-night when the eight teams resume play. Shenango, Bessemer, New Wilmington, Wampum and Mt. Jackson are snarled for the pacing slot with three wins and one loss. Coaches and fans are in unison on the fact that this winter's race is the hottest in years with talent spread evenly and not one "super" club in the circuit.

Only two of the "first place" quintets meet tonight—Wampum and Mt. Jackson, at the "Mountie" floor. New Wilmington plays host to East Brook. Bessemer goes to Union, and Shenango will await Princeton.

Wampum, fighting hard to defend the title, has come back strong after its loss to Shenango edging Union and blasting East Brook. Coach Butler Henson has shuffled his squad to get a clicking combination and seemed to hit upon it against the Eagles last Friday night. The Indians must dispose of the dangerous "Mounties" to keep their crown hopes alive.

Farrell at Aliquippa As it must in every section race, the pairing of the "titans" has come at last—this contest pitting Farrell against Aliquippa in the heated Section 3 scramble. The game will be played at the "Quips" floor.

Farrell is said to have one of the strongest hoop teams in the history of the circuit and has breezed easily past Ellwood City, Ambridge and Beaver Falls. Dealing out the "sudden death" has been big John Hammond, the negro center with coiled spring legs, high scorer in the loop with 50 points, and "Silent Sam" Jankovich, the other half of the deadliest scoring duo in the "A" loop. Kenny Webb's Quips met their old nemesis Friday at Sharon, dropping their first league game, 32-31, and must turn on the heat tonight against the Steelers. A Farrell win would make it very difficult for anyone to catch the Lewis flippers.

New Castle returns to the wars against Sharon at George Washington High floor after drawing a bye last Friday. This is always a blood-and-thunder affair, and should see some fancy pugilism by both teams. The Tigers have been brought along slowly but effectively by Coach Pete Colliodi, and right now constitute one of the sections toughest combines. Both outfits will be primed for this contest as they meet in the title chance for this season. Douglass will probably start Don Black and Don Spears at the forwards, Don Reed at center, with Wayne Gray and Jimmy Janacone handling the guard spots. Sharon's line-up will feature Garay and Jacobson sharing the forward spots, Wally Jones at center, and Beard and Tomko at the guards. The other tilt in the section will find Ellwood City, currently tied for second place with Aliquippa, going to Beaver Falls.

Favor Withdrawal Of All U. S. Teams Over Hockey Issue

Committee Favors Action If 'Outlaw' Hockey Team Participates

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—(INS)—Withdrawal of all U. S. teams from the 1948 Olympic winter games if the "outlaw" Amateur Hockey Association team is permitted to participate has been the approval of the U. S. Olympic Committee by a 68-to-6 vote. A committee member disclosed the results of a formal poll of the group last night in Chicago. The affirmative vote signified the USOC's confidence in the body's hockey policy as established at a meeting with Chairman Avery Brundage in Chicago six weeks ago.

Brundage, who is en route to Europe, is expected to present the USOC's case before the International Olympic Committee prior to the start of the winter games at St. Moritz, Switzerland, Jan. 30 to Feb. 8. The International Hockey Federation and the host Swiss Olympic Committee have recognized the AHA six as the U. S. representative in the games. However, Brundage and national AHA officials have condemned the AHA as a "professional" organization. They also have threatened to withdraw all U. S. Olympic teams from the winter games if the AHA sextet is permitted to play. American bob-sled, skating and ski teams already are abroad practicing for the games.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

WHETHER or not Babe Ruth's $50,000 salary in 1930, was tops remains a question, when one considers the bonus clauses, expenses added to regular earnings, salaries based on attendance, and other closed figures on documents and difference in monetary values. When the late Colonel Jake Ruppert, owner of the Yanks, signed the Bambino to a contract which called for $80,000, eighteen years ago, he predicted that never again would anyone else see a player earn that much money in one season. There was no questioning that prophecy until last year when Bobby Feller affixed his signature to a document, that bettered Babe's salary. And then Hank Greenberg, after abandoning his proposal to quit baseball, signed at a salary stated anywhere from $65,000 to $100,000. And not so long ago Bill Veck, prey of the Indians, announced that his pitcher, Feller, had earned $87,000, last year, which is exactly $7,000 more than the Babe received. However, Veck revealed that actually Feller received in regular salary $42,000. To this was added $40,000 as a bonus on attendance and $5,000 as expense money. It was estimated Bob would have to pay about $32,000 of this in federal taxes, leaving him about $35,000 clear, according to reports. On the other hand, Ruth handed over less than $10,000, to Uncle Sam in 1930, leaving him around $70,000 net. In addition, the King of Swat received an additional 10 percent of the exhibition "take," or about $25,000. Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox clouter, is up in the top money brackets, too. He was reported to have got about $75,000 last year. Another, who might approach Babe's top figure in a year or so, is Joe DiMaggio. Following his selection as the A. L.'s most valuable player last year, he received a big boost in pay. He earned $43,750 in 1947, and his 1948 money is believed to be anywhere from $60,000 to $75,000.

Patsy Brannigan, former bantamweight and featherweight, one of the greatest fighters who ever lived, and who for 20 years, since leaving the game of Hit and Miss, has operated an elevator in the City-County building, Pittsburgh, has retired and will devote his time to helping to develop boxers. Patsy fought champs, near-champs and all of the good boys in both divisions. He boxed Featherweight champion Johnny Kilbane several times, Bantamweight Champion Kid Williams, Bantamweight Champion Johnny Coulon, Jimmy Walsh, Yankee chawitz, Young Ziringer, in fact every good boy there was in the fistie world in his day. While a New Castle resident, he accompanied Jimmie Dime to Australia where he met his first TKO defeat. This was by Jimmy Hill who inflicted a severe rash on Brannigan's nose, and the referee stopped the fight in the last round, the twentieth. In all that time he was knocked down only once, and that by Kid Williams. Upon breaking up, Brannigan flattened Williams, making it "Even Stephen." During Brannigan's days, the money nurses were not so good as today. He was one of pathfinders of the Dime gymnasium, and always will be remembered as one of the greatest.

"Fixers" At Garden Again

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(INS)—A mild flurry swept eastern collegiate basketball circles today with confirmation of a report that "fixers" again are attempting to earn an honest penny on games at Madison Square Garden. The gamblers were turned down flatly, but as yet nothing has been done about the matter officially. Sam Winograd, director of athletic at City College of New York, gained permission to reveal that City College authorities admitted receiving a telephone call from Philadelphia before last Tuesday night's CCNY-Syracuse game in The Garden, tipping them off to an alleged fix. Winograd declined to identify the caller, but said he had prepared an affidavit which covers the whole situation. The City College authorities have this information, including the informer's name, he added. If any action is to be taken, it's up to the district attorney or any other interested New York City bureau. The tip proved entirely unfounded when the angry City College players trounced Syracuse 61 to 55. Such an incident, however, is bound to place an undue strain on all players performing at The Garden.

C-I Leaders Turn Back Universals, 41-36; Methodists Win Forfeit

The sizzling Shenango Pottery club turned back a challenge by the Universal Pottery team last night at the Y. M. C. A. floor, winning, 41-36, in a fast-moving and exciting clash. Jay Thomas led the Shenango hoop assault with 13 markers, while Janacone, injected late into the line-up, reaped 10 for the Universals. The winners jumped to a 13-7 first period lead and kept up the pace, having a 23-14 halftime bulge.

Cally Club Wins

The Calabria club outpointed the Bronze UAW-CIO, 69 quint, 36-32, in another thriller. The game was knotted at 17-all at the intermission, but the Cally boys spurred to enjoy a 25-19 third period edge. Tommelio led the Bronze attack with 15 points, while Tuscano banked in 12 for the winners. In the only Church loop game on the schedule, the First Methodists won via forfeit from the Croton team due to a starting time mix-up which saw the latter failing to appear.

MARCHILDON PAYS CHECK INCREASED

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 20.—(INS)—Phil Marchildon, 19-game winner for Connie Mack last year, will be hurling them from the mound this season at Shibe Park with added gusto. The extra added zeal will be supplied by the fat salary increase the Canadian reportedly received. Arrival of his signed contract at the Athletics' office made him the 15th player in the fold. Bill (No-Hit) McCahan also has signed.

Hint Harlow May Not Have Left Harvard U. Without Some Pressure

By BILL CORUM (International News Service Sports Writer)

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—The esteemed Will Cunningham, for 10, these many years an autocrat of the New England breakfast table even on the mornings when there is pie for breakfast, had something in his piece of yesterday that astonished this snow-bound traveler. Piano playing William intimated that the ailing Richard Cresson Harlow did not relinquish his post as football coach at Harvard entirely of his own free will. We would have thought otherwise, if only because coaching Harvard is no job for a sick man. If "Open the Door Richard" was given only a gentle shove, the question arises: How bad does Harvard want to get at football? When they had Harlow over the River Charles, they, at least, had a coach. Now all they have is a memory, and only a fellow with a long memory can remember that. It has been years since the grandfathers, fathers and sons of Harvard walked the twisting and aimless streets of this old city in broad daylight. Only in the gloom of night have they ventured forth to skitter furtively from shadow to shadow as they went about their enterprises. You can't tell a Harvard man in Boston any more without a scorecard, even then he won't admit it. It looks now as if they have to shanghai their next mentor off some visiting foreign steamer. Because if the victim speaks English, he is likely to put up the fight of his life before succumbing. Bill Bingham, Harvard's director of athletics, did get a thrill yesterday when a Harvard man rang his doorbell. But it turned out to be a fellow looking for a job shoveling snow. When Bingham suggested the Harvard coaching job as an alternative, the man turned and ran, foraging his shovel in his haste. Harvard and Yale, at the moment, might materially reduce expenses by hiring the same coach on a part time basis. The fact that who ever was chosen would be sure either to win or tie one game a year would provide some inducement. How Harvard elects to play football, if at all, is not the business of an outsider, the present speaker or isn't even Cunningham's business, since he is from Texas via Dartmouth. The erstwhile Big Green has been somewhat on the pea green side itself at football of late. Yet, I repeat, even an outsider must wonder a little what it is all about. Also whether the situation may not be an indication of a kind of dry rot at this ancient institution of learning.

Break for Him

JACK CONWAY, who has been Lou Boudreau's understudy at shortstop for the Cleveland Indians, may get his real break to play regularly with the New York Giants, to which club he was sold via the waiver route. Conway is a former University of Texas star. (International)

'Leo Durocher' Of Minor League Ball May Return

WILMINGTON, N. C., Jan. 20.—(INS)—Minor League baseball's Leo Durocher, Augustus (Shoney) Britain, today is looking forward to his return to baseball. George Trautman, czar of Minor League baseball, notified Britain in Wilmington yesterday that his 17-month suspension had been lifted. The fiery catcher-manager began his baseball career on the sandlots of Wilmington—a career that carried him through the Minor Leagues up to the Majors and then back again to Wilmington in the Class D Tobacco State League. Britain was famous for his colorful language as well as his colorful play. In 1945, he led the International League in hitting while playing with Montreal. He was suspended from organized baseball, however, near the end of the 1946 season. Following a near riot during a game between Wilmington and the Clinton Blues. During the melee, Britain and former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher Van Mungo battled at home plate, each being knocked to the ground. Mungo drew a fine and a brief suspension. Britain was suspended indefinitely. Earl Blaik, Army's football coach, won the Army Athletic Association saber award in 1920 for outstanding playing in football, basketball and baseball.

Old Maids Outsmart
Aurora Bachelors

AURORA, Ill., Jan. 20.—(INS)—Aurora's hard-to-get bachelors were jolted out of their snug complacency today by Aurora's determined, man-hunting old maids. Each leap year the town's old maids take over the city government and bring eligible bachelors before the bar of justice to explain why they are not enjoying married bliss. Fines run to nylons, candy and flowers and in previous leap years several "arrests" led to the altar.

But this year Aurora's bachelors hoped to escape because leap year's day falls on a Sunday when they could skip out of town. They underestimated the unmarried female. The gals appealed to the city council, all married men, and succeeded in having the leap year date set forward to Feb. 27, when the man-hunting begins.

Of about 500 islands in the Hebrides off the coast of Scotland, only about 100 are inhabited.

Rheumatic Heart Clinic Will Open Here Wednesday

State Health Department, Local Medical Society Sponsors Clinic At Jameson Hospital

A rheumatic heart clinic sponsored by the Pennsylvania Department of Health and the Lawrence County Medical Society will open in the Jameson Memorial hospital Wednesday, January 28.

The purposes of this clinic are to find and to register all patients in this vicinity under 21 years of age who have a history of rheumatic fever or rheumatic heart disease, and to provide diagnostic and consultation services for the physicians of this area. It is hoped that these measures will be of value in the study and prevention of this disease and helpful in the treatment by the attending physicians.

Any child under the age of 21 years is eligible for registration, but should be referred by a physician in occasional cases when no physician has been in attendance public health nurses may also request registration for diagnosis. When a physician desires his patients to be registered, he may call the Jameson Memorial hospital and ask for the rheumatic fever clinic secretary or he may write to the secretary of the clinic at this same address.

After a patient has been registered by the doctor, appointments will be made to examine the patient. The examination will include a detailed clinical history and heart study with X-rays of the chest, electrocardiogram and various laboratory procedures, such as a blood count, sedimentation rate, and others which may be of value. After the examination has been completed a complete report will be sent to the patient's private physician. No treatment will be given to the patient except upon the written request of the referring physician.

The clinic will be held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month beginning at 9 a. m. Dr. J. O. Woods of New Castle has been appointed by the State Department of Health as the director of the rheumatic heart clinic to be conducted in this county.

"THIS COMES OF YOUR CONSTANTLY REFERRING TO IT AS THE DRAWING ROOM!"

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 20.—(INS)—Barbara Stanwyck has just completed her first planned vacation and it will be her last.

Beginning "Sorry, Wrong Number" for Hal Wallis, Barbara explained: "I had a full three months between the time I finished 'BF's Daughter' at M-G-M and the start of this picture. I decided I would have a real rest."

No Rest At All
"I rented a house at Palm Springs for the whole three months. Do you know how many days I spent down there? Exactly six. If M-G-M wasn't bringing me back for added scenes, or something, then the Wallis staff wanted me here for wardrobe fittings, or something."

Never again. It isn't worth it.
Wallace Beery Rumbas
Wallace Beery has just completed his first performance of the rumba. He said he'd have been just as glad if I'd stay at home.

It was for a scene in Metro's "A Date for Judy". Wally, looking very distinguished in white tie and tails, wiggled a little bit and waggled a little bit there with pink-gowned Selena Royle in his arms. When it finally was filmed rumba king Xavier Cugat stepped down from his podium, solemnly shook Wally's hand, and said: "This is the greatest moment of my life. I can write to my family in Europe and tell them I have reached the peak."

Completes First Movie
Czechoslovakian beauty Florence Marly has completed her first American picture, Paramount's

"Sealed Verdict." with a crowning achievement. She's just rented a house high in the Hollywood hills after spending her first three months in glamorland in a hotel room. Finding a house you can rent in Hollywood is comparable to scaling Mt. Everest.

Said Florence: "Having my own home again makes me the happiest girl in the world. It is so high I can look right down on the Los Angeles fog."

Linda Is Happy
Gorgeous Linda Darnell wound up her role in "The Walls of Jericho" for 20th Century-Fox with a sigh of relief which could be heard all over the lot.

Preparing to shed the whalebone corset required by her early century garb, Linda said: "This thing was bad enough when the weather was cool, but this hot spell has made it torture. I tried to get some relief by taking it off during the luncheon period, but the studio complained I took so long getting back into it I held up the picture. I had to stop that."

Out Of Snow
Joan Caulfield flew in from snow-bound Lake Placid, N. Y., for one day's work in "The Sainted Sisters." She found a snow scene on the set with 15 tons of shaved ice keeping the set temperature down to 40 although it was 88 outside. Then she flew back for more skiing at Lake Placid.

Ten Sworn Into Marine Reserves
Induction Taken Place At The Castleton Sunday Afternoon; Fifty Have Signed Up

Ten New Castle men received the oath of enlistment in the Marine Corps Volunteer Reserve in The Castleton hotel Sunday afternoon. The oath was administered by M/Sgt. Daniel H. Horne of the local recruiting office. All former Marines, the men who heard the oath were but a part of the 50 odd Marines who signed into the Reserves during Citizens Marine Week.

According to L. B. Round, Community Committee chairman, this is only the beginning. "We have only begun to recruit. There are over 200 former Marines in the county eligible for enlistment in the Volunteer Reserves of the Marines and a good many more boys of the county who have been in other branches of the service and young non veterans who have a wonderful opportunity open to them."

Following the ceremony George Jones, commandant of the Gy/Sgt. Harry T. Burns Detachment of the Marine Corps League, welcomed the new recruits at a fellowship meeting. They were addressed by L. B. Round, honorary recruiting sergeant.

The men who were sworn in are: Edward H. Crowthers, 21½ East street; Michael J. Higgins, 349 Neshannock avenue; A. G. Dinmore, 1112 South Mill street; Paul R. Martin, Box 178 West Pittsburg; Ralph T. Morella, 303 Taylor street; Paul M. Wise, 828 Vogan street; Richard B. Minner, 435 West Grant street; Charles Levy, 328 North street; Elmer J. Suber and Cecil S. Suber, 106 West Lincoln avenue.

HIGH COURT SIDESTEPS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(INS)—The Supreme Court Monday sidestepped a ruling on the constitutionality of the California law barring alien Japanese from owning land in the state. In a six to three decision, however, the high court reversed the action of a state court in taking away the land of a boy of Japanese descent on the ground that his father, Kajiro Oyama, an alien, was the true owner.
